*PRAYER of CONFESSION Rev. Ron Hipwell

Almighty God, You love us, but we have not loved You. You speak, but we have not listened. Wrapped in our own concerns, we walk away from neighbors in need. We condone evil, prejudice, warfare, and greed. God of grace, help us to admit our sin, so that as You come to us in mercy, we may repent, turn to You, and receive forgiveness. May we walk in the light of Your love. In Jesus' name.
(Silence for individual confession)

*ASSURANCE of PARDON

Leader: The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting.
People: As we humble ourselves, God forgives our sins and restores right relationships.

Still you're there right beside me.

"I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"
*I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto Me and rest;
lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Your head upon My breast!"
I came to Jesus as I was,
so weary worn and sad;
I found in Him a resting-place,
and He has made me glad.*

*I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
look unto Me, your morn shall rise,
and all your day be bright!"
I looked to Jesus, and I found in Him my Star, my Sun;
and in that Light of life I'll walk,
till traveling days are done..*

*UNISON AFFIRMATION of FAITH THE APOSTLES' CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS of the PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CHANCEL FLOWERS

The flowers this morning are given by Beverly Prymas to the Glory of God and in Loving Memory of Stan and other family members.

Today we start a new Sermon Series, "Let Your Light Shine!" It is based on Jesus' command in Matthew 5:14-15:

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven."

When I first read these verses, I thought they leaned toward "works righteousness." I focused on "Let your light shine before others, so they may see your good works. Yet are we called to let our "light" ... that which is brightest and best in our souls and our works ... shine so others might praise us and say what good people and what a good church we are? Tempting perhaps, but not true.

Jesus calls us to live for God and in so doing, "Let your light shine" so that others are led to praise God and give God glory.

Has anyone ever called you God's angel when you showed them love? Chances are they saw your light shine. Has anyone broken down in tears of joy for assistance received and said, "Thank you Jesus!" Chances are they saw your light shine. Has anyone benefitted by an anonymous gift or deed and given glory to God. Chances are your light shined.

We are created to shine God's love. It's a good feeling and a challenge at the same time. Over the next several weeks we will explore how Christians "Let Your Light Shine" and how Eastminster might be a "Lighthouse" in the community and world.

Today we start with the Old Testament book of Isaiah. In Isaiah 58:10-11 we read:

If you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness
and your gloom be like the noonday.
¹¹ The LORD will guide you continually,
and satisfy your needs in parched places,
and make your bones strong;
and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water,
whose waters never fail.

As you hear testimony of what is going on through Eastminster at Daily Bread, praise God for shining Light through Godly members and friends. Then pray:

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Use me today and each day to shine your Light and to bring you glory. Amen
In what ways are you called to shine?

Blessings,
