CHIMING of the HOUR Martha Bortner, Handbells

*HYMN of PRAISE #434 KINGSFOLD
“Today We are Called to be Disciples”
Verses 1&4

*WELCOME/ANNOUNCEMENTS Rev. Dr. Tim Rogers-Martin

*UNISON PRAYER of CONFESSION Written by Confirmand
Lord, we have been unfaithful. You have called us to be beacons of love and light to others when we don’t even love ourselves. Anger, jealousy, self-doubt, and low self-esteem cloud our thoughts and judgement. Oh Lord, help us to see the light within so that we may see the darkness in others and help turn it into light. When we are in our own grief we fail to see other’s hurt and need for comfort and love. Help to clear our eyes so that we may do your good work for the sake of others. In Jesus name we pray... (Time for silent confession)

*ASSURANCE of PARDON
Leader: The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

All: To God be the Glory! Amen.

*CONFESSIONAL RESPONSE #579 GREATOREX
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, Amen.

SERMON Rev. Dr. Tim Rogers-Martin
“Passing the Light”

*UNISON AFFIRMATION of FAITH THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER (Sung) Malotte
Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Next week with Rev. Dr. Tim Rogers-Martin
Sermon: “You are the Light of The World”
Scripture: James 1:12-18

In your bulletin there is a "Remembrance Card" where you may list a person or persons who have passed away you want remembered in worship. These cards will be collected in the offering and mentioned during the prayers of the people.

CHANCEL FLOWERS

The flowers this morning are given by Peri DiPiero to the Glory of God and in joyful celebration of my daughter Katelyn’s birthday.

REMEMBERING OUR SAINTS
November 1, 2016 – October 31, 2017

Today we celebrate All Saints Day. We remember with thanks those who have “run the race before us” and are now a cloud of witnesses around us. William How’s hymn, “For All Saints Who From Their Labor Rest,” sings the why of this day: “O may the soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old, and win, with them, the victor’s crown of gold... And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long, steals on the ear the distant triumph song, and hearts are brave again, and arms are strong... Alleluia, Alleluia!” We’re grateful for their example and strengthened by it. Let us remember:

- Bette Baldwin
- Victor Moss
- CV Williams

Tim's Tidings

"If I knew the world would end tomorrow, I would still plant an apple tree." ~ Martin Luther

What a wonderful weekend we just celebrated with the Kirkin' o' th' Tartans, the 95 Theses for Today, and the excellent drama on Martin Luther written by Pastor Kristy Ray. Thanks to the scores of members and friends who served to make it possible for well over 500 people from church and community to be inspired from "Light from the Past" that gives hope for tomorrow.

Christians are a people of endless hope rather than a people of a hopeless end. Martin Luther lived in a time of plague, persecution, political change, intellectual discovery, and spiritual turmoil. The people of his day literally thought the world was about to end. Nevertheless, they lived by faith in God, assurance of the grace of Jesus Christ and confident in the power of the Holy Spirit. God accomplished mighty things through them!

We face many challenges in the world and in the church today, just like in the Reformation. Faced with the challenges of his time, Martin Luther affirmed his faith saying, "If I knew the world would end tomorrow, I would still plant an apple tree." Good thing... as the trees Luther planted 500 years ago are still bearing fruit. May we, like Martin Luther, be hopeful and courageous in our service to God!

Next weekend, November 11-12, you and I will consecrate our Estimates of Giving for 2018 to the Lord in the context of worship. This we do in hope, faith, and generosity knowing that God does great and enduring things through faithful people. This will be our time of planting, of investing in God's work as you and I consecrate our money, time and talents for the ministry and mission of the kingdom. You will receive a brochure and an Estimate of Giving Card in the mail in the next few days. The emphasis will be to "Step Up" as able in the spiritual discipline of tithing.

As giving to God is both a discipline and joy, Eastminster will have an all-church Celebration Luncheon at 11 a.m. on Sunday November 12. This is a time to celebrate in Thanksgiving for all that God has provided and to enjoy being together in fellowship. A "Home Cooked Sunday Dinner" will be served around tables as we celebrate God's goodness, grace and love. All are encouraged to attend. No reservations are necessary. What a joy it is to be in a congregation that has a sweet spirit and enjoys fellowship together!

It is said that humans can count the seeds in an apple, but only God knows how many trees those seeds will bear. I am grateful for those in the past who planted so that we might enjoy fruit today, and humbled at what God will do as we "plant trees" today through obeying God's commands and enjoying the "fruit" of generosity.

See you in Church,
